Overall winners for 2012:

The small print

- Anyone – colleagues, patients and the public – can nominate an individual or a team.
- Just write down the name of the person or team and explain in no more than 50 words why you think they deserve to win.
- Thank you cards, plaudits and letters of praise also count – these should be sent to the same address.
- The judges want to see the reasons a person or team should win and what qualities they have that make them so outstanding:
  - were they caring, welcoming, respectful and kind?
  - did they communicate clearly, keep you informed and stay responsive to your individual needs?
  - did they give you a consistently professional and safe service?
  - did they make a difference to you and your health?
  - and your health?
- Awards are presented to an individual and a team on a quarterly basis and there will be an annual Awards event in June 2013.
- The judging panel includes directors, governors and staff side representatives.
